Classic Pellet

Special features of Classic Pellet:

- ✓ For all breeds, housing conditions and performance direction
- ✓ Ideally suited for large stables
- ✓ Reasonably priced and efficient
- ✓ Enriched with all vital minerals, vitamins and trace elements

Wholesome-pellet in premium quality well-balanced and highly digestible – individually adaptable to a wide variety of feeding situations

Ideally suited:

- ✓ For all breeds, performance directions and housing conditions

The basis of the Classic-Pellets consists of carefully dried grass from regional meadows with easily digestible grain (maize, barley and wheat).

Enriched with feed which contains pectin to ensure an optimal fibre-content and therefore taking into account the horse's sensitive intestinal system.

Classic-Pellets contain an appropriate supply of all vital minerals, vitamins and trace elements. These high-quality wholesome pellets have a wide variety of feeding possibilities.

Classic pellets are suited for large stables as a concentrate basis for all performance directions and breeds. Classic Pellets can be fed alone or combined with grains.

Feeding recommendations:

According to work load up to 600 g Classic Pellets per 100 kg body-weight daily
