Lucerne is a high quality roughage replacement or supplement that supplies the horse's diet with valuable protein and essential amino acids and also important minerals and trace elements

Lucerne is the queen of forage plants and distinguishes itself through an especially high amount of essential amino acids. Lucerne is a high-quality roughage replacement or supplement that not only supplies the horse's diet with valuable protein and essential amino acids but also with important minerals and trace elements. Compared to LEXA Lucerne Cobs the Pure Lucerne Fibre has an especially high amount of structure and fibre and therefore is very suitable as structured feed which improves the horses feed in a natural way. Pure Lucerne Fibre has a moderate amount of fibre, delivers a low amount of energy and is very low in sugar but still ensures the supply of important essential amino acids. Due to the high amount of roughage lucerne is suitable as a complete crib feed for horse's that need to lose weight or as a valuable additional source of roughage for all horses. Even for sport horses Pure Lucerne Fibre can improve the feed of grains through mixing the fibres with the grains to reach a slow and stomach-friendly intake without adding too much protein. As a completely starch-free feed which is also low in sugar it can be a great replacement for crib feed for horses with sensitive sugar metabolisms, horses with grain intolerances or special breeds. Pure Lucerne Fibre improves chewing activity and increases the chewing time which can be important for the digestion. Pure Lucerne Fibre is a high-quality natural product which is completely free of additives, grains and molasses.

Feeding recommendations:

As an improvement of the basic feed: 0,9 kg Pure Lucerne Fibre replaces about 1kg of hay.

Can also be fed in individual amounts as crib feed.
